32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year B - 11 November 2018

Readings: 1 Kg 17:10-16; Heb 9:24-28; Mk 12:38-44

Haere mai e te whanau, Tena koutou katoa, a kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.

Welcome, family, greetings to you all. May the Lord be with you.

Dear Parishioners

What beautiful readings today. The contrast between the "show-offs" and the humble widows is stark. Both widows give out of their need, not out of what is left over. In all likelihood they have spent their whole lives relying on God's providence, teaching us, once again, the meaning of the maxim, "What we hold on to we lose anyway; what we give away is returned a hundredfold...."

We pray deep gratitude for all our benefactors, and especially during this month, for those whose names are written in the list of our Holy Souls.

With every blessing in Christ,
Michael McCabe,
Parish Priest

ARMISTICE DAY - 100 YEARS
11 NOVEMBER 1918 - NOVEMBER 11 2018

Upon the cross, sorrow and pain and every dreadful, tragic consequence of sin was overcome.

Today we remember all those who have joined in that sacrifice for peace and justice.

We give thanks for the bravery of men and women who have served for harmony and love.

And in a world that is still torn and broken we declare that Jesus is Lord.

That hope overcomes despair,

That joy overcomes sorrow,

That peace overcomes hostility,

That love overcomes hate.

From the tomb, the promise of eternity emerged in a resurrected Christ.

Grace was poured into the hearts of all those who suffer, mourn and grieve.

Lord, we lift our hearts to you and continue to remember, to hope and to love.
