

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year B - 14 June 2015

Readings: Ezek 17:22-24; 2 Cor 5:6-10; Mk 4:26-34

Haere mai e te whanau, Tena koutou katoa, a kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.

Welcome, family, greetings to you all. May the Lord be with you.

Dear Parishioners

During the week I noticed the Goodman's men clearing the site for our new Church and relocated Parish School so I stopped to thank them for the wonderful job they were doing. 'No problem' they said, 'this must be so very exciting for your parishioners?!'

I was moved by their enthusiasm and by their generosity on our behalf. Isn't it ironic that members of the wider community are so very encouraging on what we seek to do in Christ?

They are like the farmers in today's gospel who encourage the sowing of good seed. Their enthusiasm also encourages us to be patient for the harvest — for faith is indeed the work of the Lord.

With every blessing in Christ

Pray for unity – that our individual stones may build a spiritual home within our parish community as well as a physical church.

Please also pray for the success of the Symposium next Saturday.

PASTORAL NOTICES

Thank you from The Fromont Family

Vanya, David, Gerard and Izac's wider family would like to thank Father Michael, the Parishioners of Our Lady of Kapiti, as well as the children, parents and teachers of St Patrick's School for the long term support during the period of Izac's illness. We have been overwhelmed by the generosity of these parishioners and Parish Organizations, in so many ways, at the time of Izac's deeply moving funeral. We are sincerely grateful for this huge demonstration of practical love towards our family. It is good to be part of this amazing parish community.
