Haere mai e te whanau, Tena koutou katoa, a kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.

Welcome, family, greetings to you all. May the Lord be with you.

Dear Parishioners

In today's first reading, and in the gospel, widows are praised for their hospitality and generosity. They give everything they have in the service of God and their neighbour.

How often do we see the providence of God given in the graciousness of those who have been widowed or bereaved?

This weekend, at our annual Mass for the bereaved, we honour those Holy Souls from our Parish family and our own families who have died during the year. It has been our privilege as priests and pastoral workers to see the generous and loving care that their families gave to them in their last illness. It is also our privilege to witness the depths of faith their loved ones portray in their grief.

May our prayers bring the bereaved healing and the Holy Souls eternal rest.

With every blessing in Christ, Michael McCabe, Parish Priest
