

Christ the King - Year B - 22 November 2015

Readings: Dan 7:13-14; Apoc 1:5-8; Jn 18:33-37

Haere mai e te whanau, Tena koutou katoa, a kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.
Welcome, family, greetings to you all. May the Lord be with you.

Dear Parishioners

'The kingdom of God is found in places that, for most of us, are not the easiest or most comfortable places to be...
The values that govern the kingdom of God are seen in the lives of the poor, the powerless, the vulnerable and those on the margins.
What God's kingdom is like is glimpsed in the lives of those who, without giving it much thought, reach out to someone in need...' - Michael Hayes
Last week a parishioner asked for a Mass to be offered for all the Ministers of the Eucharist who take communion to the housebound – over 100 parishioners receive communion every week through the generosity and kindness of these Ministers of Holy Communion.
I happily offer Mass this weekend in gratitude for these Ministers and for all the ways that each of you build up the Body of Christ here in Kāpiti and beyond.

With every blessing in Christ, Michael McCabe, Parish Priest
