

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year C - 21 August 2016

Readings: Is 66:18-21; Heb 12:5-7, 11-13; Lk 13:22-30

Haere mai e te whanau, Tena koutou katoa, a kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.

Welcome, family, greetings to you all. May the Lord be with you.

Dear Parishioners,

It is common to hear our modern world referred to as 'secular, pagan and sinful...'

Perhaps this is shorthand for describing the reality and complexity of modern life...?

Perhaps it is shorthand for describing the challenge of bringing the gospel to our brothers and sisters...?

Whatever its origin such a mindset can easily overlook the workings of grace.

In every age, and in every culture, and in every people, there are courageous witnesses to the workings of God's grace and presence.

With every blessing in Christ,
Michael McCabe, Parish Priest
