25th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year C - 18 September 2016

Readings: Amos 8:4-7; 1 Tim 2:1-8; Lk 16:1-13

Haere mai e te whanau, Tena koutou katoa, a kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.

Welcome, family, greetings to you all. May the Lord be with you.

Dear Parishioners,

I will be attending the annual clergy retreat for the priests of Palmerston North and Wellington Dioceses this week. Please pray for us as we take time out to rest and to listen to God.

It has been said that, 'A commitment to live spiritually is the first step to finding a way to live spiritually.'

In every parish or faith community there are people living deeply spiritual lives who provide inspiration and encouragement and possibilities for our own growth in Christ.

Deeply spiritual people reveal the presence of grounded virtue and the gifts of the Holy Spirit such as, detachment, forgiveness, and courage. They wisely use their time, their talent, and indeed all of their blessings, as gifts to be shared in blessing for others.

With every blessing in Christ,
Michael McCabe, Parish Priest

Thanks to all who came along to our Social Justice Week lunch on Sunday.
Lovely food, great sharing of migration stories - a good start to the week.

St Vincent de Paul Society needs help

With the sale of the Paraparaumu presbytery, we are losing our food store.

Providing food to people in need is one of our core functions.

We would like someone to offer us the use of a piece of land in Paraparaumu so that we can erect a small garage in which to store our food.

If you have a spare garage that you could make available, that would be even better.

We just need storage until the new church is completed in a couple of years.

Please phone Eddie Dickson, Secretary, 905 4012
