Haere mai e te whanau, Tena koutou katoa, a kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.

Welcome, family, greetings to you all. May the Lord be with you.

Dear Parishioners,

A sincere thanks to all who helped in any way with the beautiful closing Mass at Saint Patrick's Church last Sunday and with the cleaning and emptying of the Church. The parishioners of Te Wairua Tapu Parish in the Hutt Valley are deeply grateful for their 'new pews', altar and lectern and our assistance with the refurbishment of Saint Patrick's Church at Wainuiomata.

The Waitangi Day Mass and Opening Mass for the School year were equally memorable. Thank you all — so much work goes into good liturgy and into our hospitality. We appreciate all that parishioners have done in recent months to bring these liturgies about and to build the palpable sense of unity and joyful enthusiasm in our Parish of Our Lady of Kāpiti.

Join us, if you are able to celebrate the gift of love on Tuesday, Valentine's Day, for Eucharist at 7pm. This will be the Mass of the day.

With every blessing in Christ, Fr Michael McCabe, Parish Priest

Phone Scam targets elderly

The New Zealand Bankers' Association has issued a warning to beware of fraudsters pretending to be utility companies and banks and we feel it is a timely reminder for us all.

Tips to help you avoid scams:

- A bank will never ring and ask for your account details or personal information.
- Never tell anyone your login details, PINS, passwords or verification codes - not even the police, bank staff, friends or family.
- Check your statements. Advise your bank immediately of any unauthorised transaction.
- Your utility service provider will never call you and then transfer you to your bank.

Association Chief Executive Karen Scott-Howman says -
"If in doubt, just hang up and call your bank's 0800 number to report the call."
