Dear Parishioners

With your generous support the Produce stall after Mass at Paraparaumu has raised just over $10,000-00 in its first year!

There would be not be many parishioners who attended the 10am Mass (now 8.30am) at Paraparaumu who have not tasted Matalena's famous cheese or date scones

...List of what we would need to make this work

1. Four people to run the stall

(two each week to set up table - alternate fortnightly) organise a float - bank takings or hand in to office)

2. Parishioners to provide produce for sale

donations of any produce e.g. baking, fruit/veges, plants, jam, chutneys etc. Donations of baking need to be well wrapped and priced. We aim to price goods between $1 - $5.

3. Customers - if you don't like to bake you might like to buy - Matalena has already promised to provide some of her freshly baked scones.

I've been thinking... We could double our money each year if we have a stall at Waikanae as well

Every fundraising effort helps to lift our fundraising total - We can't always contribute to everything but this second stall may be a way that you can feel you are 'doing your bit'.

If you think you can help raise another $10,000-00 with this new venture at Waikanae we would love to hear from you as soon as possible.
