The Most Holy Trinity - Year A - 11 June 2017

Readings: Ex 34:4-6, 8-9; 2 Cor 13:11-13 Jn 3:16-18

Haere mai e te whanau, Tena koutou katoa, a kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.

Welcome, family, greetings to you all. May the Lord be with you.

Dear Parishioners,

In his poem, 'The Great Hunger', noted Irish poet Patrick Kavanaugh speaks of how the farmer, the people of the land, have their own 'homespun' theology of the Trinity and are able to see, 'the Father in a tree, the Holy Spirit in the rising sap, and Christ will be the green leaves that will come at Easter from the sealed and guarded tomb...'

We begin our personal prayer and Eucharist with the sign of the Trinity. We also bless ourselves throughout the day – for protection, in thanksgiving and in gratitude. When we do so, consciously or otherwise, we are entering the very mystery of God as Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier.

Because the Holy Trinity dwell within our hearts, in mystery, and in grace-filled presence, we are able to bless and become a blessing for others.

With every blessing in Christ,
Fr Michael McCabe, Parish Priest.

We are building a Church

Good news to hear that the first two weeks of the Waikanae produce stall have been successful.

A simple way to regularly raise the dollars we need.

Please remember though, we do need your support to continue.

Donations of muffins, your favourite cake or biscuits, slices, or shortcake will help immensely during the winter months.

*Congratulations to L'Arche
On the opening and blessing of their new houses this weekend.
We wish them joy and happiness
in their new home.*

Catholic Enquiry Centre

Trinity Sunday is the day allotted by the New Zealand Bishop's Conference to pray for the evangelisation work of the Catholic Enquiry Centre. Please pray for them, their work and the special gift they give to those who are searching.
