Haere mai e te whanau, Tena koutou katoa, a kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.

Welcome, family, greetings to you all. May the Lord be with you.

Dear Parishioners,

During the month of June the parents and caregivers of 28 of our children have been participating in our sacramental programme – learning about the Sacrament of Reconciliation. These children celebrate their First Reconciliation this Thursday afternoon. Our deep gratitude to the parents and children and to the programme co-ordinators and teachers, Delwyn Barber, Jacqui McLaughlin and Zita Smith.

To be able to meet with the parents and children each Sunday, thanks to Father Jim, is a privilege, especially as they courageously and generously share their faith and experience of learning about, and living out, God's unconditional love for us in Christ. I am moved by their courage, their faith, and their forgiveness, and by their willingness to be the 'first and best teachers of their children in the ways of faith' but also by their commitment in growing in adult faith. To my mind this is an example of the fearless living by faith Jesus is talking about in today's gospel, Matthew 10:26-33.

With every blessing in Christ,
Fr Michael McCabe, Parish Priest.

M A T A R I K I

(translation: the 'eyes of God')

The Māori New Year begins this weekend when the star cluster known as the Pleiades first appears in our skies.

It is a time to pause for reflection, to honour our deceased loved ones, to learn from the past, and to plan for the future.

We are called to be a people of te atawhai me Aroha te tahi kia te tahi - mercy and love towards each other.
Let us honour that call by bringing love, compassion and a new way of life to those around us, particularly those in need.

Tihei mauri ora! Behold, the breath of life!
