31st Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year A - 5 November 2017

Readings Malachi 1:14 - 2:2, 8-10; 1 Thess 2:7-9, 13; Mt 23:1-12

Haere mai e te whanau, Tena koutou katoa, a kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.

Welcome, family, greetings to you all. May the Lord be with you.

Dear Parishioners,

In your copy of the Welcom you will see the list of the Archdiocesan Synod outcomes – there are 96 in all and these will provide a template for our mission as a parish and Archdiocese in the future.

At the Masses next weekend one of our Synod delegates from Our Lady of Kāpiti Parish will speak on their experience of the Synod. As Cardinal Dew notes in his letter of promulgation, 'each parish is different and will have its own priorities.' In recent years our pastoral priorities flow from our Parish Mission statement and will continue to do so with these added insights from the Archdiocesan Synod.

With every blessing in Christ, Michael McCabe, Parish Priest

Francis & Margaret Berry on the death of Francis's brother

Fr John Berry

May they rest in the peace of Christ

Ballentynes Fashion Show

A good crowd of ladies and one gentleman (Bernie) gathered for our third fashion show. We all had a wonderful evening of fun and laughter and saw some great new fashions exhibited by some wonderful models.

A big thanks to the models, all those who assisted with raffles, food and drinks and to Ballentynes staff for making the evening a great success. The evening raised $1428.38.

Thank you for your support.

.....Carole Hutchings & Mary Cook

"SEASONING KĀPITI" PROJECT

This fundraising initiative has not had the response we had hoped for so we have decided to put this idea "back into the pantry!" Thanks to those who were able to support it and sincere thanks to our sponsors — the very successful High Tea raised about $2000 towards our new Church.

.....Claire Reiher and Anna Ryan
