

Third Sunday Easter - Year B - 15 April 2018

Readings: Acts 3:13-15, 17-19; 1 Jn 2:1-5; Lk 24:35-48

Haere mai e te whanau, Tena koutou katoa, a kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.

Welcome, family, greetings to you all. May the Lord be with you.

Dear Parishioners,

"It has literally taken a small volunteer army to get the parish to where it is today and, as we all know, there is still a church to come. The task of firstly amalgamating two parishes and then reconstructing a new home has been mammoth.

It mightn't be cash that everyone can front up with, but we all have individual talents to contribute. And the process that has gone on here in Kāpiti from the viewpoint of Church and School has all been undertaken without the benefit of a script, syllabus or game plan, and things could have easily fallen into a heap at any one of a number of hurdles along the way.

And why, from a school point of view, didn't that happen along the way?

It's that fella there, someone who was in the twilight of their teaching career, who could have easily 'kicked for touch'. Did he do that - no, he led! And he, with the help of others, led the school project to where it is flourishing today.

Martin, you have done a superb job and we all owe you a debt of gratitude, and so too do the people who are yet to come.

Martin, we have a gift here by local artist, Lee Russell - it is called 'Soaring in the Wind' - and it represents Kāpiti, your beloved sea, the wind, freedom and leadership. "

Excerpt from speech by Bob Houston on behalf of the Parish at the farewell Mass for Martin Elms

With every blessing in Christ, Michael McCabe, Parish Priest
