Haere mai e te whanau, Tena koutou katoa, a kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.

Welcome, family, greetings to you all. May the Lord be with you.

Dear Parishioners,

Congratulations to our Confirmation Candidates, their families and sponsors, and welcome to Cardinal John Dew, our Archbishop. Special thanks to all who have supported these children and adults on their faith journey in any way and to all who have helped in our Sacramental Program this year. First Communion Sunday is 26 August 2018 at Our Lady of Fatima Church.

This week we attended a priests' mini assembly on Tuesday and on Wednesday we gathered to celebrate the Jubilees of Ordination with Mass and dinner. Both days were grace-filled – a chance to update our own understanding of the Sacraments and a wonderful opportunity to honour our brother priests who have served so faithfully in season and out of season.

Special blessings to our own Jubilarians - Father Owen Sinclair celebrating 55 years of priesthood and Monsignor John Carde celebrating 60 years of priesthood. Ad multos annos.

With every blessing in Christ, Michael McCabe, Parish Priest

PASTORAL NOTICES

Prayer Focus: In today's second reading, St Paul calls on Christians to be generous in sharing our resources. In the gospel, Jesus points out the strength of faith in those who call on him for help. May we, as a parish, show both faith and generosity in contributing towards the building of our new parish church.
