14th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year B - 8 July 2018

Readings: Ezek 2:2-5; 2 Cor 12:7-10; Mk 6:1-6

Haere mai e te whanau, Tena koutou katoa, a kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.

Welcome, family, greetings to you all. May the Lord be with you.

Dear Parishioners,

Jesus returns home and his ministry is rejected by his townsfolk.

Jesus is amazed at the inability of his neighbours to be open to grace.

Are we really any different?

For all the mileage about stewardship do we really welcome gifts that differ?

Does our pre-judgement of others flow from our own insecurity?

Does our own understanding of God blind us to grace and to different spirituality?

Do we strive to make God into our own image and likeness rather than allowing God to shape and reshape our hearts?

May gratitude and openness to God's grace shape our hearts this week.

With every blessing in Christ,
Michael McCabe, Parish Priest
